New York, New York

真實的紐約

My name is Sam. I'm eighteen years old. This summer, I'm going on vacation with my parents. Every year we try to go to a new place. Last year, we went to New York. It was really exciting and very different from what I expected. I thought it was going to be like what I saw in the movies, but it was nothing like that. New York is a big city, but it is also like a small town. Different parts of the city are like different countries. One of the most interesting parts I visited was Chinatown. In this area, there were many businesses and shops that were run by Chinese. The street signs were in English and Chinese. Most of the people walking down the streets in this part of New York were Chinese. My parents were really amazed and they felt like they weren't even in New York. I'd really like to go back to New York again because there are so many more countries within the city I would like to explore.
